WHAT IS AWESOMISM?

By Suzy Miller, M.Ed.

AWESOMISM IS THE DEEP INNER SHIFT that restores your trust in yourself, your child and your significant relationships.

AWESOMISM IS SEEING BEYOND the “disorder” to a brilliance of your child’s difference.

AWESOMISM IS KNOWING your child for who they really are, complete with the amazing clarity, wisdom and gifts that they are bringing to your life.

AWESOMISM IS AN OPPORTUNITY to move beyond limitation and into potentials and possibilities!

AWESOMISM IS A POWERFULLY POSITIVE way to experience autism.

AWESOMISM IS THE PARADIGM SHIFT you need to LOVE YOUR LIFE again!

of Clinical Competence. She pioneered a shift in the perception of autism from an individual “disorder” to a collective revolution in human consciousness and has been playing in the field of leading edge consciousness ever since.

Throughout her long career, Suzy has collaborated as effectively with psychologists, social workers, mainstream educators and medical professionals as she has with leading edge scientists, metaphysicians, healers and new thought leaders. Her experience and expression of consciousness is effortlessly applied in the appropriate “dose” to anyone seeking her insights.

Suzy collaborated with Dr. William Tiller, Professor Emeritus Stanford University, and featured physicist in the movie “What The Bleep” spearheading The Autism Intention Healing Experiment, which to this day provides an ongoing coherent intention to support the integration of children diagnosed with autism.

The Awesomism Practitioner Process, educates parents and professionals around the world regarding their own mastery as well as the spiritual gifts of our newest populations, demonstrating directly how increased consciousness is what is needed to support the integration of this population. Suzy has personally facilitated the growth and mastery of over a hundred practitioners located in at least 15 different countries. She continues to explore the furthest reaches of consciousness and how it can be applied not only to our newest populations but to all aspects of the human condition.

Suzy is a lifelong student of consciousness itself and currently offers her awareness, experiences and support through private sessions, workshops, articles, and live events! From awareness to mastery to avatar, Suzy is interested in supporting the integration of the broadest scope of your being with the most natural aspects of your humanity.
